WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Improvement of Robinson Street—Rapid Progress of the Work—Pavement Will Be Laid This Year.

Contractor Max Nichols, with a force of one hundred men, has begun work on the retaining wall for Robinson street. The trench has been dug to the depth of four feet and everything is in readiness for the quick dispatch of the job. This is necessary owing to the rush of the paving operators, who will endeavor to have the street ready before the close of summer. The Traction company has abandoned its switch on Robinson street and the track has been moved to the center of the road, according to the agreement of the company and the West Side board of trade. The place where the excavation is being made on Robinson street is quite dangerous. Monday night a horse and wagon tumbled over the embankment. Luckily the fall was at a point near the beginning of the wall and the damage was small. Since Monday night lanterns with red lights have been placed along the precipice.

BOYS GO TO CAMP.

Company F is gone, and for the next ten days a number of familiar faces will be missed on this side. The boys presented the picture of youth last evening as they marched away. There are few old heads in the company now; all have left and smooth faces,ardless youth—the pride of Hyde Park—take their places. The great majority of the company are new at this camp business and many changes in complexion and carriage are looked for on the return. Here is the list:

Eugene D. Fellows, captain; Harry P. Decker, first lieutenant; William O. Jones, second lieutenant; Edward W. Thayer, second sergeant; Will S. Freeman, third sergeant; Burr R. Carling, fourth sergeant; John M. Edwards, fifth sergeant; Robert Naismith, corporal; John R. Edwards, corporal; George F. Blight, corporal; Harry F. Carling, corporal; Benjamin F. Allen, corporal, and Privates Thomas M. Beals, William W. Beddoe, Harold W. Batlin, Otto L. Buck, Arthur E. Clark, Harry M. Colle, William A. Davis, William J. Dehman, George L. Davis, Thomas J. Davis, Robert P. Diehl, William H. Davis, Morgan Edwards, Edward Edwards, George Edwards, Eugene H. Fellows, Albert Foster, George T. Griffiths, Owen Hughes, James Hamilton, John M. Mackreth, William March, Wallace G. Moser, Harry A. Mott, Arthur E. Merdeth, William H. Newman, Thomas A. Phillips, Harry K. Peck, Lemuel Phillips, William O. Bender, Robert D. Pettit, William H. Phillips, Frank Raymond, Latimore A. Reese, Scott L. Shaver, Garrison A. Storm, Edward F. Stover, George F. Blight, Charles W. Silaboe, Robert E. Williams, Charles A. Wrigley, Lorenzo D. Watson, Charles Wallace, Albert J. Wall, Musicians James Unsworth, Thos. Griffiths.

FUNDS ARE NEEDED.

Brooks A. Bass, agent for the society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, is after funds to keep the organization afloat. The expense of sustaining the drinking fountains about the city has nearly emptied the treasury. Mr. Bass reports that he has ended the sufferings of eleven disabled horses during the summer. The law regarding the use of flynets on horses with both tails is now generally enforced. These things Mr. Bass points to as evidences of the good done by the society. He asks for contributions.

HAS OPENED A SCHOOL.

Owen Hughes, a young man, who is crippled by the amputation of one arm, has started a pay school in the basement of the Tabernacle Congregational church on South Main avenue. Twenty pupils are already enrolled. Mr. Hughes is a struggler in life and wishes to make a living by teaching.

NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS.

The funeral of the late Michael McNally will take place at 9:30 o'clock this morning from St. Patrick's church. Interment will be made at Washburn street cemetery. An interesting game of ball was played yesterday afternoon on the central grounds between the "News" and

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Two Announcements of Delegate Candidates for the Nineteenth Ward. Four Children Dead.

Republicans anxious to represent the district to which they belong in the county convention on August 4 are compiling forward declaring themselves. William Miller, of Irving avenue, has announced himself for delegates from the third district of the Nineteenth ward, and Charles Rentscher, of Birch street, is anxious to represent the fourth district of the same ward. The primaries will be held on Saturday, August 1, and the South Side will send twelve delegates to the convention. Each election district is entitled to one delegate except the first of the Eleventh ward, which can send two. The second of the Twelfth does not send any.

The funeral services of Flossie, the little daughter of George Snyder, will be conducted at the house, 1629 Penn avenue, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Forest Hill cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Evans returned last evening from Honesdale where they have been visiting friends for a few days. The Gospel meeting Sunday afternoon held in the Women's Christian Temperance Union rooms at 3:45 o'clock will be addressed by Rev. Mr. Dunn. Mrs. S. B. Voorhees and mother, of Princeton, N. J., and Mrs. W. A. Merrill, of Summerville, N. J., are the guests of Mrs. B. E. VanDevere, of Delaware street. Mrs. Clifford of Penn avenue, who was taken very ill while attending the funeral of her father, Mr. Brundage, of Peckville, about two months ago, will be able to return to her home tomorrow. Mrs. Joseph Mills, of Capouse avenue, is visiting relatives in the country.

DEATH OF FOUR CHILDREN.

The funeral of Irving, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zang, of Birch street, was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30. Interment was made in Pittston avenue cemetery. The funeral of an infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Henry, of Minooka, was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30. Interment was made in St. Joseph's cemetery. Charlotte, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Keller, of Moosic street, died Thursday night. The funeral will be held Monday afternoon. Margaret, the 7-month-old daughter of Prof. and Mrs. John E. O'Malley, died Thursday night. The funeral will be held at 2:30 this afternoon. Interment will be made in St. Joseph's cemetery, Minooka.

BELONGS TO MR. CARMELO.

Patrolman Peter Haggerty, at an early hour yesterday morning met a gentleman of leisure, who was attired in a suit of clothes which looked as if it had been made out of a crazy quilt. Lodging was given to him in the Alder street station and he was before Alderman Storr later in the day for a hearing. He was ordered to get out of town as fast as his legs could carry him, but he has refused to comply with the order and still infests the South Side. He is from Mt. Carmel, and is one of the dirtiest looking tramps on the road.

SOUTH SIDE Y. M. C. A.

The Gospel meeting at South Side rooms on Sunday, July 19, will be led by Miss Lizzie Christophel. The subject, "Claiming God's Promises." Good singing. All young women welcome. Services lasting only from 3:45 till 4:15 p. m. The Junior Bible class meet every Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Something new is planned for the I. W. T. club every meeting night, which is on Friday. We invite all young women to come in and join us. New members are coming every week. The rooms are closed every day from 12 to 2 p. m.

SHORTER PARAGRAPHS OF NEWS

Rev. M. J. O'Byrne, of Honesdale, visited Rev. J. A. Moffitt, of St. John's yesterday. Miss Wanda Westphal and Miss Emma Eckel are home from a visit to Elmira. Miss Mame Goddard, of Cedar avenue, is visiting in Syracuse. The employees of William Connell & Co. were paid yesterday afternoon. Those of the Greenwood Coal company and at the South Steel mill will be paid this afternoon. The funeral of William Carlin, who died from the injuries sustained at Great Bend, will be held Monday morning. High mass of requiem will be celebrated at St. Peter's cathedral and interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. William Rader and sister, Miss Anna Rader, of Big street, have gone to Atlantic City. At Laurel Hill Park today the members of St. John's Total Abstinence and Benevolent society will entertain their friends with a picnic. At Central Park a picnic will be held under the auspices of Company A, Patriotic Guards. An infant child of James Moore, of Cedar avenue, died last evening. Funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. DUNMORE. Edward Angwin is making extensive improvements on his new Blakely street residence, which he purchased quite recently. The services at St. Mark's have been somewhat changed until September 1. The Sunday school at 9 o'clock has been omitted, and the regular Sunday evening service will be held at 4 o'clock instead of 7:30. The service at 10:30, however, will not be changed. The above are caused by the Rev. S. J. Houston, who will take charge of St. Luke's. Misses Mulvina and Rena Donaldson, of New York, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. J. B. Hobbay, of Brook street. The funeral of Mrs. Henry Parfrey, of Brook street, will take place today at 1:30 from the Methodist Episcopal church. Interment to be made in Dunmore cemetery. The alarm of fire which was sent in last night at 7:30 from box 31 was caused by a slight fire in the upstairs of the house occupied by L. Davis, of Potter street. The Independents and Neptunes quickly responded, but their services were not required, as the fire was extinguished before they arrived. The excellent time made by the fire companies shows how well Dunmore is being equipped for all emergencies. With the aid of the D. E. D. Officers and John B. Smith's, whose hose cars are daily expected, Dunmore will be as finely equipped as any town in the state. This will mean a decrease of the insurance, which at present is very high. Mrs. John Monroe is seriously ill at her home on Brook street. George Oswald and Herman Ludwig enjoyed a horseback ride over the Elmhurst boulevard yesterday. The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. John Watrous, on Chestnut street, was in a state of joyful festivity last evening, on account of a surprise party, which was tendered to their daughter Louie, by the following of her young friends: The Misses Daina Capwell, Ella Branning, Kate Harvey, Mable Freeman, Hattie Jenkins, Annie Branning, Grace Harvey, Lydia Sly, Bessie Kraeger, Mammie Harper, Annie Powell, Blanche Haycock, Nell Harper, Edith Schoonover, Jennie Bleseker, Clara Hess, Minnie Bruning, Annie Enslin, Hoobe Engert, Ida Watrous, Adn Barnard, Jennie Secord, Mable Robinson, and the Messrs. Arthur Jenkins, Roy Sly, Wes Finch, Edward Harper, William

M'KINLEY NOT SUPERSTITIOUS.

He is Elected an Honorary Member of the Famous Thirteen Club. New York, July 17.—William McKinley, Republican nominee for president, is an honorary member of the Thirteen club. He begins the campaign by setting at defiance all prevailing superstitions. J. R. Abaranel, architect of the Thirteen club, notified him June 29 that he had been elected an honorary member. All that was necessary to complete his membership was his acceptance of this honor. It has been accepted. As the Thirteen club has completed its thirteenth year of its incorporation for the purpose of defying all ancient and modern superstitions by persistently doing the things which are supposed to bring ill-luck, Major McKinley has deliberately put himself on record as being above and free from all such superstitions. He begins his membership by writing his letter of acceptance on Friday, which came on July 8, a day which twelve members of the club at a dinner whenever he happens to be in this city.

RUSHVILLE'S MAYOR THROWS INK.

Councilman Young and the Chief Executive Have a Dispute. Rushville, Ind., July 17.—At a special meeting of the city council today a discussion arose between Councilman Edward Young and Mayor Joseph A. Armstrong, who was in the chair. Young called Armstrong a liar, upon which the mayor threw a big inkstand at Young, who ducked under his desk. Yesterday both hands were a red record book at the mayor, who responded with a bulky copy of the revised statutes. A fusillade of books was kept up between the belligerents until they approached each other and prepared to grapple in personal encounter, when cooler heads in the meeting interposed. Great commotion was caused by the racket, and the council was nearly stampeded. Both men were fined in Justice Poe's court.

BORN ON LAKE MICHIGAN.

Steamer Reaches St. Joseph with Two Young Men Passengers. St. Joseph, Mich., July 17.—When the steamer city of Milwaukee of the Graham & Morton line arrived here this afternoon she had on board two passengers whose names were not down on the trip sheet. They were two bouncing baby boys, which were born to Mrs. Jones D. Jenkins, of Hutchinson, Kan., on the run across the lake. Mrs. Jenkins was on her way to Hartford, Mich. No names were given to the babies, which were born in the middle of Lake Michigan.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

As to Sunday Shaving. Sir: The Barber's Union has its drag net out last Sunday. The union is bound to protect the bosses who observe the law and punish those who insist on violating the Sunday closing code, so the practice of Sunday shaving must either cease in great shape, however, and now it is said they are racking their brains to concoct some scheme to get even with the boys. Will they do? Well, no. Yours truly, JOHN VOLKMAN, Scranton, July 17.

TRAVELLED AHEAD OF IT.

The trolley car dashed into the crowd. With glee demonic. And then came the warning, long and loud. It had sounded two blocks back. —Chicago Tribune.

FOREST CITY.

Miss Cecelia Nallin, of Scranton, is the guest of Miss Lizzie Melvin, of Main street. John Williamson, of Wilkes-Barre, was a business caller in town yesterday. William Davis and A. D. Wyckoff, of New York, are registered at that popular hostelry, the Forest House. Bert Trim, of Pittston, spent a few pleasant hours in town Thursday, renewing acquaintances. Miss Emma Reed is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Fred Gray, at Dundaff. The McKinley-Hobart brothers are so numerous, that a huckleberry picker reports that a rattlesnake killed on the mountain a few miles east of this place had added one to its list of rattles. John W. Grant, the graceful writer of Jermyn news to the Republican, was in this borough yesterday. The Erie colliers in this place have worked three quarter time each day this week. Among the Scrantonians that visited this place yesterday were: S. S. Seamans, W. M. Fuller, J. A. Harkness, William H. Duggan. A lady called for blank oil leases in town yesterday. She said she expected soon to put down several test wells for oil in this county. She sought to pay a visit to the productive (O) oil region of O'Connell's coal mine, and be convinced that the best place to invest some money would be in the Forest City Car and Manufacturing company.

LOST HIS CAT AND HIS MIND.

A Farmer Becomes Insane Over the Death of His Pet Felina. Shelbyville, Ind., July 17.—Last week John Mohr shot a pet cat belonging to his father-in-law, John Schneider. Since that time Schneider has been acting strangely, and this morning he was taken violently insane. He grabbed a butcher knife and chased his daughter from the house. Every step they took the father would slash the knife at his child, and while she was not fatally cut, her wounds are dangerous. George Reed and Thomas Miller, who were working in field, heard the woman's screams and ran to her rescue in time to save her life. Schneider will be sent to an asylum.

BURNED WHILE RIDING.

Miss Pearl Sheppard's Clothing Ignited Accidentally in a Buggy. Shelbyville, Ind., July 17.—Miss Pearl Sheppard, living at Everton, Fayette county, was almost burned to death while riding in a buggy with her brother George. He had lighted a cigar, and threw a match in the buggy, which ignited his sister's clothing. He quickly lifted her from the vehicle, and by tearing her clothes off and then wrapping her in his coat, he extinguished the fire, but not until his sister was fatally burned.

NINE CHILDREN POISONED.

Entire Family of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Die After Drinking Lemonade. St. Cloud, Minn., July 17.—E. Secord, of Havana, Sherburne county, brings news of the fatal poisoning of a family of nine children caused by drinking lemonade July 4. The lemonade contained some poisonous ingredients. The children died one after the other and the parents are still very sick. The name of the family is Allen. No definite report is obtainable.

MARKETS AND STOCKS.

Wall Street Review. New York, July 17.—There was a material falling off in the dealings at the Stock Exchange today, the total sales only footing up 244,792 shares. The opening was generally firm, London houses having bought moderate amounts of the issues listed abroad, such as St. Paul and Louisville. A drive at the industrials followed and this destroyed the good feeling, sugar tobacco, leather preferred, Chicago gas falling 7-3 a 1 1/2 per cent under pressure. The general railway list also ran off partly in sympathy with the break in the industrials and partly because the favorable rumors circulated yesterday failed to materialize. A rally in government bonds, the new 4's showing a recovery of 1 1/2 per cent, from yesterday's low point and the fact that the engagement of two millions gold for shipment to Europe did not lead to fresh selling of long stock set the shorts to thinking and in the afternoon session there was a fair amount of buying to cover contracts. New York Central, which sold at 90 yesterday, today brought 84, less than a thousand shares changing hands. There were other standard stocks which are heavily oversold and it needs but a little courage on the part of the bulls to bring about a sharp rally in the standard issues. In the last hour sugar, which had sold up to 10 1/2 from 10 1/4, ran off to 10 1/4 on the announcement that the price of refined will be reduced. This led to realizations and the early rise of 1/2 a 4 per cent, was generally lost. Speculation closed barely steady. Net changes as a rule show losses of 1/2 to 1 1/4 per cent. Louisville and Nashville and New York Central gained 1/2 and 1/4 per cent. Sugar, which was the most active stock, figured for 60,300 shares. The trading in St. Paul amounted to 41,500 and in tobacco 31,600 shares.
